DEDICATION

Message to Seniors

JONATHAN Y. LOWE, Principal

The staff of the Miltonian, Milton High's annual record and pictures, is to be commended for an outstanding publication. As this yearbook serves through the years as a perpetual memory of your senior activities at Milton High, so may your recollections serve as a continual challenge to seek wisdom and understanding in becoming a useful citizen of your home, community, and nation. I congratulate your parents on the part they have played in the many sacrificial efforts to assist in your graduation from high school. They have reason to sense pride in your accomplishments to life.

Class History

Well, seniors, we are finishing our high school days. Let's look back at the first day we entered Milton High School. It was in September, 1949. We met Mr. Lowe and were assigned to our homeroom teachers who were Mrs. Allred, Miss Browder, Mr. McDaniel and Mr. McCoy. Our homeroom chairmen were Mary Seager, Billy Jo Clark, Sarah Holley, and Eli White. Dwight Harshbarger and Mary Seager were the first members of our class to get in the Band in this year.

In September, 1950, we entered MHS as eighth graders. This year our homeroom teachers were Mr. Fugate, Mr. Ball, and Mrs. McGinnis and Marada Murrell was chosen Junior High Cheerleader this year. Some of our classmates joined the Junior High Glee Club and many of our boys joined the Junior High Basketball team.

In the year 1951 we came to Milton High as freshmen. This year we were joined by students from Culloden and Ona who soon became just another part of the class. We had as our homeroom teachers Mr. Throckmorton, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Stanley, Mrs. Harshbarger, and Mrs. Thornton. Homeroom chairmen were David Morton, Mary Burns, Margie Yoho, Mary Seager, and Dwight Harshbarger. Junior High Cheerleaders from our class were Ann Morrison, Marada Murrell, Sarah Holley, and Joan Huffman. Some of our class joined Vo-Ag., F.H.A., Basketball, Glee Club, and Band.

In the fall of 1952 we came back to MHS as sophomores with Mrs. McClung, Mrs. Harshbarger, Miss Kline and Miss Blake as our homeroom sponsors. This year even more were on the football and basketball teams and in the band. This year Joan Huffman was Senior High Cheerleader and Ann Morrison and Sue Huffman were majorettes with the band. We'll never forget those Huffman girls!

Our attendant to Miss Greyhound was supposed to have been Margie Yoho, but due to a serious illness she was unable to go to the game and the dance.

In the fall of 1953 we came to school as flighty juniors and were in the homerooms of Mrs. Frazier, Miss Wayland, Mrs. Hunter, and Mrs. Harshbarger. Our class officers were Dwight Harshbarger, George Kinder, Margie Yoho, and Boyd Meadows.

Jack Pinkerman, who moved here in 1954 from Portland, Oregon, defeated Boyd Meadows and Curtiss Barrett for the Presidency of the Student Council.

Eli White was drum major of our band from 1953 - 1955.

Of course we'll always remember the Junior Class Play, "Gabriel, Blow Your Horn". The cast consisted of Curtiss Barrett, George Kinder, Margie Yoho, Ann Morrison, Kay Perry, Mary Seager, Mary Burns, Sue Adkins, Boyd Meadows, Bob Bragg, Dwight Harshbarger, and Darrel Morrison, all of whom will tell you that the play was one of the highest points in their school life.

We'll never forget how hard we worked on the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom, but we'll all agree it was worth every drop of tears, sweat, and blood we shed.

Our attendants to Miss Greyhound were Margie Yoho and Ann Morrison and their escorts were Gene Ball and Eli White.

In the fall of 1954 we entered dear old MHS for the last year. We really felt like "Mighty Seniors". Our homeroom teachers were Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. Frazier, and Mr. Fugate and our class officers were George Kinder, Boyd Meadows, Danny Dillon, Gary Holbert.

New majorettes were Anna Jean Clay, Beatrice McCalister (who has now become Mrs. Harold Austin) and Margie Yoho (who is now Mrs. Jack Perry).

Sara Grass, escorted by Jimmy Queen, was chosen as Miss Greyhound of 1955 and her attendants were Ann Morrison, escorted by Eli White, and Margie Yoho Perry, Escorted by Dwight Harshbarger.

And now, seniors, we are finishing our high school days and are eagerly looking forward to Senior Skip Day, the class play, our banquet and prom, and then baccalaureate, and commencement.

This is the end of our school days at Milton High but it will not be the end of our many pleasant memories. We will always look back on our school days as the best days of our lives.

We appeared at eight of the ten football games this year. The shows contained precision marching, swing music, and old fashioned waltzes. The best liked number was a swing tune called "Business in B^{b}". The majorettes went to town on this one and Charles Danford and Dwight Harshbarger had the "ride" solos.

We took part in the Corner Stone Laying Ceremonies of the new Baptist Church, Memorial Day Services at the cemetery, Fourth of July Parade sponsored by the Fire Department, and gave an outdoor concert for the Hospital on Hospital Day. We also put on three other concerts for the school and town people.

This year we did the best ever on the Birthday Calendar--we had 1103 listings.

Our hope for next year is "A New Band Room".
